I've had a really great day to day....

I was having a treat because I'd been a good boy.
Was it some sweets or was it a toy?

When home time came I said bye to my mates
I grabbed my coat and ran through the gates.

Me and my dad got into the car

"Get comfy Joe your treat is far"

"Where are we going? Please tell me."

But all dad said was "Wait and see."

I saw a sign after quite a while!

"We're in Manchester" I said with a smile.

I was gobsmacked and excited.

We were going to watch United

There was so much noise and so many fans singing and chanting and clapping their hands.

United were great they scored three,

One for Owen, two for Rooney

After the match I just had to say

"Thank you dad I've had a really great day!"
